

GREEK GODS

Name:

ARES

Ares is the god of

_____.

He has armor and carries
a big

_____.

He can be mean. He does help

the gods and Greece
from enemies.

Known for:
bravery
destruction
chaos
impulsivity
protection

APOLLO

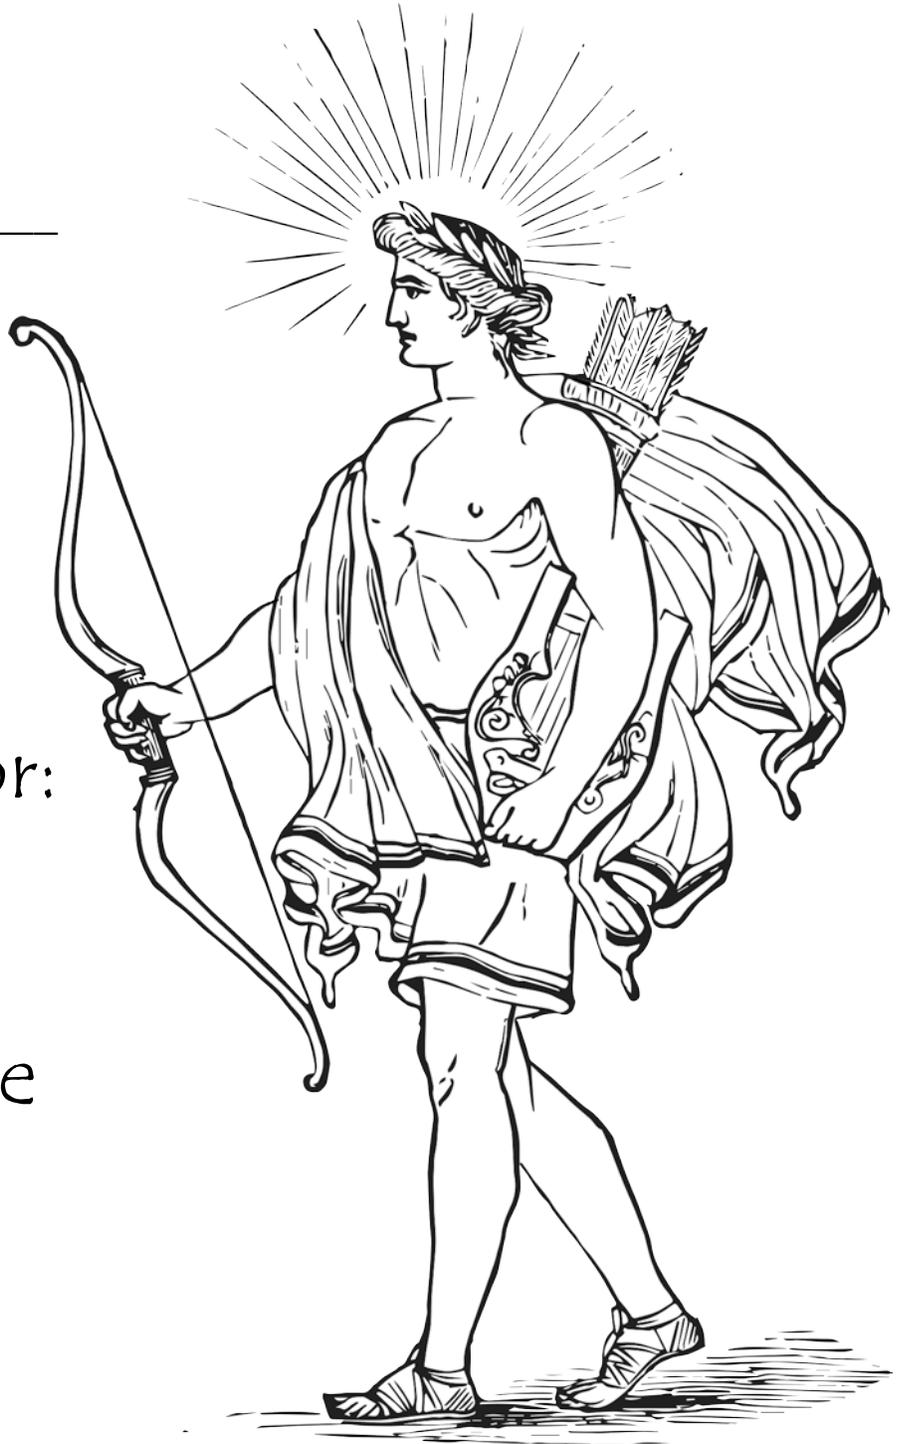

Apollo is the _____ of the sun and moon.

He _____ the sun chariot across the sky.

He plays the lyre.
He is good at

_____ (shooting arrows)
and is a talented
musician.

Known for:
music
creativity
knowledge
harmony
comfort

ARTEMIS

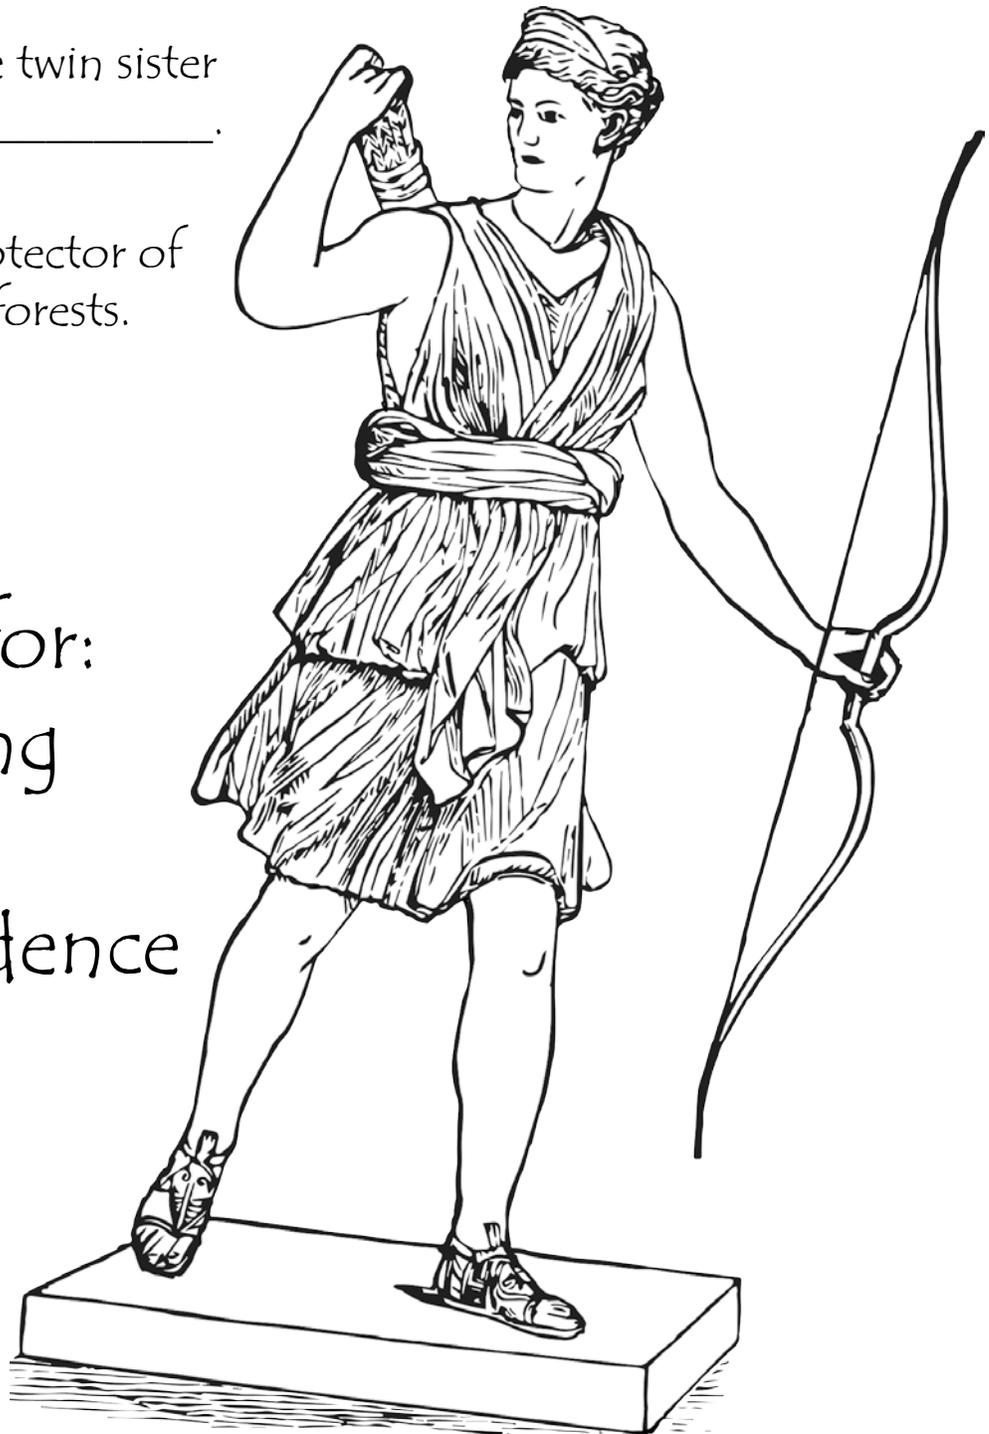

Artemis is the goddess of _____ (action).

She is also called the _____ (place in space) goddess.

Artemis is the twin sister of _____.

She is the protector of animals and forests.

Known for:
protecting
strength
independence
hunting

ATHENA

Athena is the goddess of _____.

She is very smart and knows a lot of things.

Athena has a _____ and a helmet. Many people ask for her advice.

Known for:
wisdom
courage
bravery
giving advice

CHIRON

Chiron is centaur. A centaur has an upper body of a _____ and a lower body and legs of a _____.

Many centaurs are wild and rowdy, but he is not. He is known for being a wise _____ of the gods and heroes. One of his students was Hercules.

Known for:
wisdom
teaching
healing
compassion

CHRONOS

Chronos is the father of _____.

In ancient _____, chronos meant time.

He is not the same as the Titan _____ who was the father of _____

He symbolizes the passing of time and his tool is usually the _____.

Other times, he is holding an hourglass or clock.

Known for:
wisdom
endurance
tolerance

Name: _____

DIONYSUS

Dionysus is the _____ of celebration.

Known for:
joy
spontaneity
emotion
indulgence

He is known for inspiring joyful and
extravagant festivals.
People would celebrate
with

_____ and dance.

He is connected with Greek theater which would often be found at his festivals.

HADES

Hades is the ruler of the _____.

He was known for enforcing the _____
and maintaining order.

Known for being:
unemotional
authoritative
calm
orderly
stern

HERA

_____ is the queen of the gods.

She is married to _____. They live on Mount _____.

She is known for watching over families. She can get _____ of
others who get more attention
than her.

Known for:
beauty
jealousy
power
protection

POSEIDON

Poseidon is the god of the _____.

He holds a big _____. It looks like a giant fork with three prongs.

Poseidon can make big waves and controls the _____.

Known for:

power

moodiness

being majestic

dominance

impulsivity

ZEUS

Zeus is the god of _____.

He is the king of all the gods in ancient _____.

He lives on Mount _____.

Zeus has a lightning bolt he uses when he is _____.

Known for:
power
strength
authority
protection

